THE BASES AND OBJECTIVE OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE FUND, INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND

THE BASES FOR THE ACTIVITIES OF THE FUND

The Fund is a pool of money raised through a public issue of Units, and of other assets acquired from investing this money that belongs jointly to the Fund's unit-holders and that is managed by the Management Company. The bases of the Fund's activities and the relations between unit-holders and the Management Company have been laid down in the legislation of the Republic of Estonia and the Fund Rules.

Various risks relate to investing in the Fund that may influence the performance of the Fund and the value of the unit-holder's investment. A detailed overview of risks related to investing in the Fund is disclosed in the section "Risks".

THE OBJECTIVE OF THE FUND'S ACTIVITIES

The objective of the Fund's activities is long term capital growth from investing primarily in government and corporate fixed income instruments of Emerging Europe, Russia and the countries within the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS).

Achieving the Objective of the Fund is not guaranteed. Past performance is not a guarantee or indicative of future results.

INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE FUND

Investment Region and Authorised Instruments

The Management Company shall invest the Fund's assets mainly into high yield and non-investment grade fixed income instruments of governments and companies of Emerging Europe, Russia and the countries within the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS). The investment region encompasses among others the following countries: Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Poland, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Slovakia, Slovenia, Romania, Bulgaria, Croatia, Macedonia, Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Serbia, Montenegro, Turkey, the Russian Federation, Moldova, Ukraine, Georgia, Azerbaijan, Armenia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan. Companies with registered offices elsewhere that have substantial business interest in the region or securities nominated in currencies of the investment region are also considered part of the investment universe.

Fixed income instruments are bonds, money market instruments, commercial papers, covered bonds, convertible bonds and other tradable debt securities, depository receipts, subscription rights and other tradable rights that entitle to acquisition of securities. The Fund's assets may also be invested in derivative instruments, units of investment funds. Exceptionally (for example in case of exiting an investment, restructuring of instruments, exercising conversion option of convertible bonds, participating in takeovers or mergers or in other exceptional situations) the Fund's assets may also be invested in shares and other similar instruments of up to 10% of the Fund's assets.

There are no restrictions regarding the type of issuers when investing the assets of the Fund. The Management Company does not follow a sector approach when investing the Fund's assets. The precise division between asset classes, types of issuer, regions and sectors in the assets of the Fund shall be determined in the course of day to day activities of the Fund.

Transactions with Derivative Instruments

The Fund's assets may be invested in derivative instruments for the purpose of hedging risks as well as for the purpose of achieving the Fund's investment objectives. The Fund's total exposure relating to derivative instruments may not exceed the total net asset value of the Fund. According to the judgement of the Management Company, investing into derivative instruments does not significantly increase the risk level of the Fund as derivatives are mostly used for hedging purposes. Detailed information on allowed underlying instruments of derivatives is disclosed in the Fund Rules in the appendix.

Other Authorised Transactions

The Management Company may on behalf of the Fund guarantee issues of securities, borrow, enter into repurchase and reverse repurchase agreements and make other transactions of borrowing and lending securities. The Fund may borrow and assume other liabilities referred to in the amount of up to 10% of the Fund's assets. Maturity of loans and other liabilities of the Fund may not exceed three months. It is not allowed to give out loans on behalf of the Fund.

Diversification of Investments

The value of securities issued by one entity may not exceed 10% of the market value of the Fund's assets. If the value of securities issued by one entity exceeds 5% of the market value of the Fund's assets, the aggregate value of such securities may not exceed 40% of the market value of the Fund's assets. The aggregate value of securities issued by entities belonging to the same group may not exceed 20% of the market value of the Fund's assets.

The value of securities and money market instruments issued by the same person may form up to 35% of the market value of the Fund's assets if they are issued or guaranteed by a Contracting State of the European Economic Area, the United States of America, Australia, Croatia, Japan, Canada, Kazakhstan, Switzerland, Turkey, Ukraine, the Russian Federation or an international organisation to which at least one Contracting State of EEA belongs to.

According to Fund Rules the value of securities and money market instruments issued by the same person may in some cases exceed 35% of the market value of the Fund's assets. It is allowed to invest more than 35% of the Fund's assets in debt securities or money market instruments issued or guaranteed by the Russian Federation, Poland or Turkey.

Further information on the principles of the Fund's investment policy and the rules for diversification of risks is provided in the Fund Rules.

SHORT OVERVIEW OF INVESTMENT AND RISK MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES

The Management Company is an active stock-picker with focus on top down and bottom up fundamental analysis. In the course of active investment management the Management Company is actively searching for higher yielding securities among equal risk and quality parameters or lower risk instruments among equal yields.

The Management Company actively monitors maturity of single securities and the full portfolio and makes relevant changes to the portfolio based on its view on the macroeconomic and interest rate developments. The Management Company diversifies investments between countries, sectors and currencies and may base on its view on currency movements use derivatives to either hedge currency exposure or take additional currency risks.

The Management Company has established internal risk management procedures, with the aim to identify, monitor and assess and hedge the risks related to investing the Fund's assets. The Management Company regularly monitors the investment restrictions and diversification of risks.

PAST PERFORMANCE OF THE FUND

NB! Past return is not a guarantee or indicative of future performance

RISKS

GENERAL RISK WARNING

Various risks that may affect the return from the investment are related to investing into the Fund. The activities of the Fund may or may not be profitable. There is no guarantee to unit-holders that they will get back the amount invested in the Fund or that it will grow. In case the risk factors materialise, it is possible that the investor will lose a substantial part of the investment in the Fund. Past performance of the Fund is not a guarantee or indicative of future results. Due to the Fund's investment policy, the net asset value of a Unit may be highly volatile. The Fund is opened to foreign exchange risk and the development of the foreign exchange rates may affect substantially the outcome of the investment.

RISK WARNING RELATED TO EMERGING MARKETS

Assets of the Fund shall be fully invested in financial instruments in Eastern Europe. The fixed income markets in Eastern Europe have low liquidity and higher volatility compared to developed markets. Therefore it might prove to be more difficult to exit positions, thus bringing along higher risk of volatile prices. Emerging markets' legal, political and economic infrastructure is still at an early stage of development. In such countries it is more likely that social, economic or political instability will occur. As a result, investing in the Eastern Europe region is accompanied by higher risks compared to investing in developed markets. Investors of the Fund should accept that the positive developments and successful reforms that have taken place in some countries may not necessarily happen in other countries. Market capitalisation of Eastern Europe markets is relatively small. These markets are often volatile and have low liquidity. The currency exchange rates of the investment region may substantially fluctuate against the Fund's reference currency and this may have a significant impact on the Unit's net asset value. The Management Company does not generally hedge foreign currency exchange rate risks. Countries may impose restrictions on capital flows and currency export restrictions. This may result in difficulties for the Fund in drawing sales proceeds and may harm the ability of the Fund to redeem Units regularly. Financial supervision may be ineffective in the countries of the investment region. Accounting, auditing and reporting standards accepted in Eastern Europe may not be equivalent to the standards accepted in developed markets. The systems for settlement and registering of securities and the regulations applicable to and supervision of settlement bodies, registrars and custodians may not be up to the standards assumed in developed countries.

RISK LEVEL OF THE FUND

The Management Company classifies the managed UCITS funds according to the methodology described in guidelines issued by the Committee of European Securities Regulators no CESR/10-673. The funds are classified into 7 risk and reward categories where category 7 represents the highest risk category and category 1 the lowest. The lowest category does not mean a "risk free investment".

The basis of the classifications is volatility of the Fund or benchmark index with a similar investment strategy. Volatility shall be estimated using the weekly past returns of the Fund, or if otherwise not possible, using the weekly returns of the benchmark index covering the last 5 years.

The assets of the Fund shall be invested in financial instruments of Eastern Europe countries and mainly into high yield and non-investment grade fixed income instruments.

Therefore, the Fund is considered a medium high risk investment product.

The Fund falls into the risk category 3 which means that the volatility of the Fund is between 2-5%.

Risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.

PROFILE OF TYPICAL INVESTOR

The Fund is suitable for an investor with a high risk tolerance who seeks long-term capital growth through investing in fixed income markets within the Eastern European region. The investor should acknowledge that there is no guarantee that the capital invested into the Fund will be preserved or that it will grow. The recommended investment horizon is 5 years and the investor should be able to tolerate substantial volatility in the net asset value of the Unit during this period. The investor should have prior experience with investing into investment products or knowledge of the functioning of the financial markets. Being regional fixed income Fund investing into emerging markets, the Fund is suitable as one constituent of a diversified investment portfolio. The investor's financial position should be sufficiently strong to endure substantial volatility in the value of the investment. Each investor is required to independently evaluate the risks related to investing in the Fund and the effects and possible consequences of such risks in the light of the investor's investment experience and knowledge as well as the investor's financial and economic circumstances, and the time period and the objectives of the investment. The Management Company recommends that potential investors consult with a professional investment advisor before making the decision to invest.

OVERVIEW OF MAJOR RISK FACTORS RELATED TO THE INVESTMENT

Various risks relate to investing into the Fund. Such risks may have a negative effect on the outcome of the investment. A list of risks that could influence the return on the investment into the Fund has been presented below. Investment risks shall be borne by the investor. When investing into Emerging Europe markets, the investor should take into account that any risk factor listed below is more likely to materialise compared to investing into developed markets.

Taking into account the investment objectives and investment policy of the Fund, the most critical risks that are most likely to have an impact on the market value of the assets of the Fund include market risk, issuer's price risk, liquidity risk, foreign currency risk, political risk, credit risk, interest rate risk and the risk arising from the concentration of asset classes or markets. In addition to the abovementioned risks, other risks as described below are related to investing in the Fund.

Market risk – the risk of suffering losses due to adverse price movements at a specific securities' market or at a market for other assets. Adverse price movements may be caused by a country's weak macroeconomic data, poor financial results of an industry sector, unstable securities' market, investor behaviour and psychology and other factors.

Issuer-specific price risk – price risk is closely related to market risk but mainly affects a specific security or investment. Price risk is the risk of suffering losses due to adverse price movements of a specific stock or another investment. The price of an issuer's securities is affected by developments in the issuer's financial results, changes in competitive environment, analyst estimates and commentaries, etc.

Foreign currency risk – the risk that the value of an investment denominated in a foreign currency shall change in an adverse direction due to fluctuations in exchange rates.

Political risk – the risk that unfavourable trends or (political) events (e.g. changes in economic policy or legal environment, nationalisations, riots, war) take place in a country where the Fund's assets have been invested that affect the country's political or economic stability or future development thereby causing the loss of the Fund's investments in the country or diminishing the value of such investments.

Credit risk – the risk that the issuer of securities where the Fund has invested or the counterparty to a transaction on account of the Fund fails to perform its obligations either fully or partially (e.g. an issuer fails to redeem issued debt obligations, a counterparty to a trade does not deliver securities or cash during the settlement, a counterparty defaults on a loan granted by the Fund) causing damage to the Fund.

Settlement risk – the risk that the counterparty of the transaction fails to transfer the cash amount or securities to the Fund although the contractual obligation to the counterparty has been fulfilled.

Custody risk – the risk that the Fund suffers losses due to actions or inactions or bankruptcy of the Depositary, sub-custodians or local depositaries. Such losses may include losses due to the bankruptcy of a person holding securities, the person losing securities or its inability to fulfil orders.

Liquidity risk – the risk that a financial instrument cannot be sold due to low liquidity at the time desired or at a reasonable price, or that it is not possible to sell the asset at all. Liquidity risk is particularly relevant in cases when investing into small cap companies and in instruments not traded on a regulated securities market.

Interest rate risk – the risk that interest rates, yield curves or volatility of interest rates change in an adverse direction for the Fund.

The risk arising from the concentration of asset classes or markets – the risk that a particular event or circumstance shall have a pervasive effect on the Fund's return because the Fund's investments are concentrated on one or a small number of markets, a specific asset class or a small number of issuers.

Legal risk – the risk that the Fund suffers losses or that penalties are imposed on the Fund due to the possibility that the Management Company does not have a sufficient knowledge of the legislation and its statutory obligations that are applied in the target countries of the Fund’s investments. Additionally, amendments in legislation after the investment has been made could result in restrictions for the Fund’s activities or create obligations for the Fund.

Systemic risk – the risk that the non-performance of securities depositaries, stock exchanges, market places, clearing houses or other counterparties could cause losses for the Fund due to failed trades, delayed settlement, mistakes in recorded transactions etc.

Tax risk – a tax could be imposed on the Fund’s profit and withholding taxes could be applied on income received by the Fund in the Republic of Estonia or in other countries where the Fund’s assets have been invested.

The risk related to valuing the assets of the Fund – the assets of the Fund may be invested in securities with low liquidity and in securities that are not traded on regulated markets. For such securities, a valid market price may not be available. Determining the fair value of such assets may be complex and depends on assessments made by the Management Company. The price of such financial instruments used in NAV calculation may be substantially different from a later market transaction price that may lead to significant downward adjustment of the price of the financial instrument and a sizeable change in the net asset value of the Unit.

Registrar risk – the risk of suffering losses due to actions or inaction of the registrar of Units (e.g. Due to failed trades arising from technical faults, delayed settlement, erroneous transaction, unauthorised disclosure of confidential information etc.).

In addition to customary investment risks, investors have to take into account the possibility of changes taking place in the governance of the Fund. Such changes could have a significant impact on an investment in the Fund. For example, redemption of Units may be suspended based on the terms and conditions set out in the Fund Rules and in legislation; the Fund could be reorganised, merged with another investment fund or liquidated. Additionally, the fees and expenses payable on account of the Fund or the unit-holder may be changed; the Fund Rules may be substantially amended, etc. Some of the abovementioned events may take place without giving prior notice to the unit-holder.

RISKS RELATED TO DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

The Management Company may invest the Fund’s assets in derivative instruments for the purpose of hedging risks as well as for the purpose of achieving the Fund’s investment objectives. The market value of a derivative instrument depends on the price or value of another underlying asset (e.g. share, stock index, foreign exchange rate). Using derivative instruments entails leverage, i.e. a small change in the price of the underlying asset may lead to a large change in the price of the derivative instrument. Therefore, an investment in derivative instruments leads to relatively larger profit or larger loss (higher risk) compared to a similar investment in the underlying asset. In case of certain derivative instruments, the potential loss is larger than the initial investment made. Since the value of derivative instruments depends on the price of the underlying asset, a derivative instrument is subject to the same risks as the underlying. In addition, counterparty risk, interest rate risk and changes in the volatility of the underlying asset affect the value of the derivative. In order to determine the value of the derivative, complex valuation models are often used. Thus, investing in derivatives also entails valuation risk.

RISKS RELATED TO SECURITIES NOT TRADED ON REGULATED MARKETS

Part of the assets of the Fund may be invested in securities not traded on regulated securities’ markets. In addition to ordinary investment risks, such investments entail higher liquidity risk and higher risk related to valuing such assets.

UNIT OF THE FUND

UNIT

A Unit represents the unit-holder’s share in the assets of the Fund. A Unit is electronically registered security. The Fund has two classes of Units:

- Avaron Eastern Europe Fixed Income Fund A, nominal value 10 EUR, launched July 10th, 2012 (hereafter „A Unit“)
- Avaron Eastern Europe Fixed Income Fund B, nominal value 10 EUR, launched July 10th, 2012 (hereafter „B Unit“)

RIGHTS ATTACHED TO UNITS

The right of ownership of a Unit and the rights and obligations of a Unit-holder and of the Management Company attached to the Unit shall enter into force when a relevant entry is made in the register of Units.

A Unit does not grant to the unit-holder the right to make decisions regarding the transactions made on behalf of the Fund. The unit-holders of the Fund do not hold general meetings. No unit-holder is entitled to demand termination of the community of unit-holders. A unit-holder has the following rights: to demand that the Management Company redeem the Units pursuant to the provisions of the Fund Rules and legislation; to transfer Units held by the unit-holder to third parties; to receive, pursuant to the Fund Rules, a share of the assets remaining upon liquidation of the Fund and of any distributions made from the Fund in proportion to the number of Units and the class of Units held by the unit-holder; to access at the location of the Management Company the Fund Rules, the Fund’s most recent annual or semi-annual report, Prospectus, simplified prospectuses and other documents and information regarding the activities of the Fund as provided for in the legislation; to demand a document certifying the unit-holder’s ownership of Units; to perform other acts prescribed by legislation or the Fund Rules.

OBLIGATIONS ATTACHED TO UNITS

A unit-holder must exercise the rights attached to a Unit in good faith and in accordance with legislation and the Fund Rules. The objective of exercising the rights by a unit-holder must not cause damage to other unit-holders, the Management Company, the Depositary or third party. A unit-holder is not personally liable for the obligations of the Fund assumed by the Management Company on behalf of the Fund, or for obligations the performance of which the Management Company has the right to demand pursuant to the Fund Rules. A unit-holder's liability for performance of such obligations is limited to the unit-holder's share of the Fund's assets. The Management Company shall not assume obligations on behalf of unit-holders. In order to satisfy a claim against a unit-holder, a claim for payment may be made against the Units of the unit-holder but not against the assets of the Fund.

TAXATION

According to the legislation of Estonia, the Fund is not a taxable person and does not therefore pay taxes in Estonia. Depending on the tax systems of the countries where the assets of the Fund are invested, the Fund could be liable to pay taxes in these countries.

If a unit-holder is a taxable person, gains from Units may be taxable. The Management Company does not withhold any taxes on gains earned from Units. Declaring such gains in the tax declaration of accounting period is an obligation of a unit-holder. The tax system applicable to an investor may depend on the investor's residence for tax purposes, legal set-up and other circumstances. Investors are advised to consult a professional tax advisor.

NET ASSET VALUE OF THE UNIT AND TRANSACTIONS WITH UNITS

NET ASSET VALUE OF THE FUND AND UNIT

The net asset value of the Fund and of a Unit depends on the income or loss from the Fund's activities. The Fund's income shall not be distributed to unit-holders but shall be reinvested. Unit-holder's profit or loss shall be reflected in the changes of a Unit's net asset value.

The Management Company shall calculate the net asset value of the Fund and of a Unit based on the provisions of the internal rules and legislation. In order to determine the net asset value of the Fund, the value of the liabilities of the Fund is deducted from the value of the assets of the Fund. The value of the assets of the Fund is determined primarily based on their market value. If market value cannot be established, the value of the assets of the Fund is determined based on another method for establishing fair value as set out in Avaron internal rules. The total net asset value of a class of Units shall be determined by deducting the value of the liabilities of the Fund attributable to that class of the unit from the value of the Fund's assets attributable to that class. The net asset value of a Unit is determined by dividing the total net asset value of a class of Units by the number of Units of that class that have been issued and not redeemed (adjusted by the number of Units from unsettled subscription and redemption orders that have been received by the Management Company). The net asset value, the subscription price and redemption price of a Unit shall be published in the currency of the respective class of Unit.

The Management Company shall calculate and publish the net asset value of the Fund, and the net asset value, the subscription and the redemption price of a Unit at least once for each banking day on the following banking day by 4.30 PM CET+1. This information shall be published at the web site of the Management Company at www.avaron.com. A Unit's net asset value, issue and redemption price shall be rounded up to four decimal points.

FEES AND EXPENSES

	A Unit	B Unit
Expenses paid by the unit-holder

Fees and expenses paid by the Fund
Management fee	0.95%	0.60%

Other Fees and Expenses

The Management Company is entitled to reduce or waive subscription and redemption fees at its discretion. The rates of the management and depositary fee as provided in the above table are calculated as a percentage of the net asset value of the Fund. The rate of the depositary fee includes value added tax. Management and depositary fees are accrued daily and paid monthly for the previous month. Other expenses include the following: expenses related to holding the Fund's assets and making transactions therewith such as brokerage fees, interest expenses, settlement charges and transaction fees; expenses related to auditing the Fund; fund administration fees to the service provider (the service includes keeping the Fund's accounts and calculating the net asset value); expenses related to keeping the register of the Units, based on the price list of the registrar (including the registrar's charges related to receiving and processing the subscription and redemption orders of the Units). The total fees and expenses paid on behalf of the Fund may not exceed 5% of the weighted average market value of the Fund's assets per year.

PRINCIPLES FOR FEE REDUCTION AND REMISSIONS

During a certain period of time the Management Company may at its discretion pay rebates from fees received by the Management Company to investors meeting certain criteria, based on their investment size or other criteria. For example, the Management Company may return a portion of the management fees to the investors meeting the criteria.

TRANSACTIONS WITH FUND UNITS

The issue, redemption and switch of Units is organised by Swedbank AS ("Transfer Agent"). In order to do transactions with Units, an investor must have a securities account and a corresponding cash account in Swedbank AS or a registry account open in Swedbank AS and a cash account in another credit institution.

An investor can open a segregated account in its own name or agree with a third party (e.g. distributor of Units) on keeping the Units on a nominee account opened in the name of such third party. If the Units are kept on a nominee account, the orders for making transactions with Fund Units on the nominee account shall be submitted to the Management Company by the owner of the nominee account. Transfers of securities and cash shall be made in such case to the nominee account and to the current account of the owner of the nominee account.

Transactions with Units shall be settled in euro.

By submitting a subscription or switch order, the investor confirms that he or she has sufficiently acquainted himself or herself with the Fund Rules, accepts the Fund Rules and shall act in accordance with the Fund Rules. An investor is not permitted to revoke or make changes to a subscription, redemption or switch order after submitting it. Upon subscription of Units, the investor shall pay the subscription amount within the prescribed time limit to the Fund's cash account. In case of non-performance of the investor's duties, the Management Company is entitled to use any legal remedy prescribed in the law (including the right of withdrawal from the transaction and claiming damages from the unit-holder that it has caused to the Fund and other unit-holders).

Issue and redemption fees and all other direct expenses related to making transactions with Units shall be borne by a unit-holder.

ISSUE OF UNITS AND ISSUE PRICE

The Units shall be issued every day.

The issue price of a Unit is equal to the net asset value of the Unit as of the Trade Date to which the subscription fee may be added.

In order to subscribe Units, an investor shall submit a subscription order to the Transfer Agent Swedbank AS. A Unit shall be issued upon receiving the subscription amount by the Fund to its cash account on settlement date. The settlement date shall be no later than the third banking day from the Trade Date (T+3) unless the Management Company and the investor agree on a different settlement cycle.

REDEMPTION OF UNITS AND REDEMPTION PRICE

Upon redemption of Units a monetary payment corresponding to the number of Units redeemed and the redemption price shall be made out of the assets of the Fund to the unit-holder's cash account. On the day of making the redemption payment (on settlement date) the Unit shall be deleted from the register and the rights and obligations attached to the Unit shall terminate.

The redemption price shall be fixed every Monday for the previous banking day (hereafter "Redemption Date"). If the Redemption Date is not a banking day the redemption price shall be fixed on the following banking day.

In order to redeem Units an investor shall submit a redemption order to the Transfer Agent Swedbank AS. The deadline for submitting the redemption order is on Monday a week before the Redemption Date (hereafter "Order Date"). If the Order Date is not a banking day the deadline for the redemption order shall be the following banking day.

The redemption price of a Unit is equal to the net asset value of the Unit as of the Redemption Date from which the redemption fee may be deducted.

Settlement date shall be no later than the third banking day after the Redemption Date (T+3) unless the Management Company and the investor agree on a different settlement cycle.
