THE INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES, POLICY AND RESTRICTIONS

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVES

The Fund invests primarily in attractively valued, privately owned and well-managed fast growing public small and mid-cap companies in Emerging Europe ex-Russia region with an objective to deliver positive alpha over the period of five years. As stock exchanges in these markets are dominated by banking sector companies and state-owned enterprises, the Fund aims to limit investing into these segments, and focus on stock-picking mainly among privately owned, well-managed and fast growing smaller companies. Benchmark agnostic, the Fund aims to find the optimal balance between highest upside to internally set target prices and the risk level perceived by the Management Company, considering among others company quality, ESG factors, liquidity and FX outlook. Avaron adheres to the UN Principles for Responsible Investment. By implementing Avaron’s investment process the Fund aims to outperform the market.

The return on an investment into the Fund, or achievement of its investment objective is not guaranteed. The past performance of the Fund is neither a guarantee nor an indication of future performance. With the investment into the Fund, the Shareholder acknowledges and accepts that such an investment involves risk and it may result in either profit or loss to the Shareholder, including loss of the substantial amount invested. Overview of the risks pertaining to an investment into the Fund is provided in the section “Risks” below.

The Fund performs sectorial ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) exclusions as described under Investment Restrictions below but does not promote environmental and social characteristics and does not have a sustainable investment as its main objective because the related costs would not be proportionate to the current business volume of the Fund.

INVESTMENT POLICY

General Principles

In order to achieve the investment objectives, the Fund’s assets are mainly invested into equities but can also be invested into various debt instruments, deposits, FX derivative instruments and other financial instruments, subject to and in accordance with the more detailed Investment Policy guidelines and Investment Restrictions provided below, as well as the Applicable Law. The Fund is not allowed to take any leverage for investment purposes.

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking a small cap stock picking portfolio in Emerging Europe ex-Russia region. The Fund acts as a medium to long term diversifier in a global Emerging Markets, European or Global Equity portfolio. The allocation of the Fund’s assets between different countries and sectors shall be determined by the Management Company in exercising active portfolio management strategy, subject to its professional assessment and the prevailing market conditions. The degree of diversification of the Fund's investments between different countries and sectors changes over time and may be low. Due to investing in small and mid-cap equities in developing markets that carry less liquidity the Fund has a high-risk level.

The Fund mainly invests in Emerging Europe ex-Russia region. The Fund is benchmark agnostic in its investments but for the region's performance comparison MSCI EFM EUROPE + CIS (E+C) ex Russia index is used. The Fund may invest up to 20% of its assets into listed instruments in Ukraine, Georgia, Moldova and Kazakhstan.

At least 60% of the Fund's net asset value are invested in companies with market capitalisation of less than 3 billion euros.

State-controlled companies are capped at 20% of the Fund's net asset value.

Pure banking sector companies are capped at 20% of the Fund's net asset value.

If this is deemed necessary for protecting the interests of existing Shareholders, or for the orderly management of the Fund, the Management Company may decide to deviate from the above-described limits on market capitalisation of the companies, state-controlled and pure banking sector companies within 20 working days in case of large subscriptions or redemptions of Fund's Shares.

The Fund may invest in any financial instrument issued by an Emerging Europe Company or registered in Emerging Europe, unless prohibited pursuant to the mandatory provisions of the Applicable Law. In particular, the Fund may invest in the following instruments:

- FX derivative instruments for hedging purposes only;
- Deposits with credit institutions.

Money market instruments and derivative instruments (except FX derivatives) are not allowed.

Deposits

The Fund's assets may be placed in deposits with credit institutions which are repayable on demand or have the right to be withdrawn, and mature in no more than 12 months, provided that the credit institution has its registered office in a Member State or in a third country, subject to prudential rules equivalent to those provided in the European Union legislation.

Derivative instruments

The Fund is permitted to invest in and transact with derivative instruments only for hedging exchange rate risks of the Fund's assets.

The Fund may enter into OTC derivative transactions subject to and in accordance with the imperative provisions of Applicable Law. The Fund's total open exposure relating to derivative instruments may not exceed the total net asset value of the Fund. The open exposure of derivative instruments for each underlying currency may not exceed the security and cash positions in the underlying currency more than 3 percentage points of the net assets of the Fund.

Leverage and Other Transactions

The Fund is not allowed to take any leverage to achieve its investment purposes. The Fund shall not grant loans or guarantees in favour of a third party.

The Management Company shall not carry out on behalf of the Fund uncovered sales of Transferable Securities or other permitted instruments.

The Fund may not invest directly into real estate or commodities.

Investment Restrictions

Unless additional exposure per issuer (or issuers within the same consolidation group) is permissible by the Applicable Law, the Fund shall not invest more than 10% of the Fund's net asset value into Transferable Securities issued by the same entity. The total value of the Transferable Securities in entities in each of which it invests more than 5% of the Fund's net asset value shall not exceed 40% of the value of its net assets. This restriction does not apply to deposits with credit institutions, or OTC derivative transactions with such credit institutions where the Fund is permitted to hold deposits.

The Fund shall not hold more than 20% of the Fund's net asset value in cash and deposits. If this is deemed necessary for protecting the interests of existing Shareholders, or for the orderly management of the Fund, the Management Company may decide to deviate from the limit within 20 working days in case of large subscriptions or redemptions of Fund's Shares.

The Fund shall not place more than 20% of the Fund's net asset value into deposits with the same credit institution. This restriction does not apply in relation to an account with the Depository, where funds from the issue of Shares or sale of the Fund's assets, as well as dividends, interest and other monetary payment attributable to the Fund's assets are received, or in relation to funds held in overnight deposit.

An OTC derivative exposure to a credit institution, in which the Fund is permitted to hold deposits, may amount to 10% of the Fund's net assets. Risk exposures through OTC derivative instruments into other counterparties shall not exceed 5% of the Fund's net assets.

The Fund shall not invest more than 20% of the Fund's net asset value into Transferable Securities, deposits or exposures to OTC derivative instruments with the same entity.

Companies which are included in the same group for the purposes of consolidated accounts shall be regarded as a single entity for the purpose of these Investment Restrictions, unless exempted from such treatment by the Investment Funds Act. In this regard, the cumulative investment of Transferable Securities issued within the same group may not exceed 20% of the Fund's net asset value.

The Fund shall not acquire or hold more than:

- 10% of non-voting shares or other equivalent rights in a single issuer;
- 10% of the debt securities of a single issuer.

In addition to the Investment Restrictions provided above, the Management Company shall comply with all other limitations and restrictions provided by imperative provisions of the Applicable Law. The Management Company may, on temporary basis, deviate from the Investment Restrictions provided in the Prospectus, pursuant to and in accordance with the Applicable Law.

Due to sectorial exclusions followed by the Fund, it does not invest in issuers that:

- design, develop, manufacture or overhaul weapons, weapon systems or components;

- derive more than 20% of revenues from the extraction of any kind of coal including lignite;
- that derive more than 20% of revenues from coal based energy generation.

Short Overview of Investment and Risk Management Techniques

The Management Company deploys a stock-picking investment style with the focus on company-specific, sector and macro analysis. The Management Company is searching for and investing in securities with the best upside potential among equally risky alternatives or in securities with lowest risk among alternatives with equal upside.

Portfolio liquidity analysis and diversification among sectors, countries, currencies and instruments are the main risk management tools used. In addition, the Management Company may use derivatives to hedge exposure in currencies. The Management Company actively follows financial results of companies and makes relevant changes in the Fund portfolio based on companies' upside to target prices and its view on macroeconomic trends.

The Management Company has established procedures for internal risk management in order to identify, monitor, measure and hedge the risks associated to the Fund's investments. The Management Company regularly examines the Fund's compliance with its investment restrictions. Should the Fund's portfolio become in breach with the applicable Investment Restrictions due to share price movements or other circumstances, the Management Company is obligated to immediately take measures to correct such breaches.

The Fund may not use efficient portfolio management techniques and instruments for investment, hedging and cost optimisation, including securities lending and securities financing. This does not prevent the Management Company from starting to use such efficient portfolio management techniques in the future, subject to appropriate disclosures in accordance with the Applicable Law.

PAST PERFORMANCE OF THE FUND

Past return is not a guarantee or indicative of future performance. The rates of return from previous years are presented in Appendix 1.

RISKS

GENERAL RISK WARNING

Various risks may affect the return from the investment into the Fund. The activities of the Fund may or may not be profitable. There is no guarantee to Shareholders that they will get the invested amount back. In case any of the risk factors materialise, it is possible that the investor will lose a substantial part of his or her investment. Past performance of the Fund is not a guarantee or indicative of future results. Due to the Fund's investment policy, the net asset value of the Share may be highly volatile.

RISK WARNING RELATED TO EMERGING MARKETS

The assets of the Fund shall be in financial instruments of Emerging Europe ex-Russia countries. Part of the countries belonging to the Fund's investment region are not part of the European Union, and thus the legal, political and economic infrastructure of such countries is less developed compared to developed Europe. As a result, investing in the Emerging Europe ex-Russia region is accompanied by higher risks compared to investing in developed markets. Investors of the Fund should accept that the positive developments and successful reforms that have taken place in some countries may not necessarily happen in other countries. The market capitalisation of Emerging Europe ex-Russia markets is relatively small. These markets are often volatile and have low liquidity. Largest countries of Emerging Europe ex-Russia region do not use euro as their base currency and thus the currency exchange rates of the investment region may substantially fluctuate against the Fund's reference currency euro and this may have a significant impact on the Share's net asset value. The Management Company does not generally hedge foreign exchange rate risks. Countries outside the European Union may impose restrictions on capital flows and currency export restrictions. This may result in difficulties for the Fund in drawing sales proceeds and may harm the ability of the Fund to redeem Shares regularly. Financial supervision may be ineffective in part of the countries of the investment region. The accounting, auditing and reporting standards accepted in the countries outside the European Union may not be equivalent to the standards accepted in developed markets and the systems for settlement and registering of securities and the regulations applicable to and the supervision of the settlement bodies, registrars and custodians may not be up to the standards assumed in developed markets.

RISK LEVEL OF THE FUND

As the assets of the Fund shall be invested in the financial instruments of Emerging Europe ex-Russia region that is part of emerging countries and the assets shall be invested primarily in small cap and medium sized businesses which are less liquid compared to blue chips, the Fund should be considered as an investment product with high risk.

PROFILE OF A TYPICAL INVESTOR

The Fund is suitable to an investor with high risk tolerance who seeks long-term capital growth through investing into the equity markets of the Emerging Europe region. The investor should acknowledge that there is no guarantee that the capital invested into the Fund will be preserved or that it will grow. The recommended investment horizon is at least 5 years and the investor should be able to tolerate volatility in the net asset value of the Share during this period. The investor should have prior experience with investing into investment products or knowledge of the functioning of the financial markets. Being a regional equity fund investing into Emerging Markets, the Fund is suitable as one constituent of a diversified investment portfolio. Each investor is required to independently evaluate the risks related to investing in the Fund and the effects and possible consequences of such risks in light of the investor's investment experience and knowledge, as well as the investor's financial and economic circumstances, and the time period and the objectives of the investment. The Management Company recommends that potential investors consult with a professional investment advisor, before making the decision to invest.

OVERVIEW OF RISK FACTORS RELATED TO THE INVESTMENT

Various risks relate to investing into the Fund. Such risks may have a negative effect on the outcome of the investment. Investment risks shall be borne by the investor.

A list of risks that could influence the return on the investment into the Fund and what we think is important has been presented below. The list of risks is not comprehensive. Additional risks entail with the investment and have been discussed in other parts of the Prospectus or are not explicitly addressed in the Prospectus. When investing into Emerging Europe markets, the investor should take into account that any risk factor listed below is more likely to materialise as compared to investing into developed markets. Considering the investment objectives and investment policy of the Fund, the most critical risks that are most likely to have an impact on the market value of the assets of the Fund include market risk, issuer's price risk, liquidity risk, foreign currency risk, political risk and the risk arising from the concentration of asset classes or markets.

Benchmark risk – Management Company is not seeking to meet Emerging Europe ex-Russia region benchmark. Instead, the Management Company deploys stock-picking investment style by investing the Fund's assets into companies with the highest upside to target price. Therefore, the Fund's return may differ substantially from the market return.

Credit risk – the risk that the issuer of securities where the Fund has invested or the counterparty to a transaction on account of the Fund, fails to perform its obligations either fully or partially (e.g. an issuer fails to redeem issued debt obligations, a counterparty to a trade does not deliver securities or cash during the settlement, a counterparty defaults on a loan granted by the Fund) causing damage to the Fund.

Custody risk – the risk that the Fund suffers losses due to actions or omissions or bankruptcy of the Depository, sub-custodians or local depositories. Such losses may include losses due to the person holding the securities going bankrupt, losing the securities or its inability to fulfil orders.

Foreign currency risk – the risk that the value of an investment denominated in a foreign currency shall change in an adverse direction due to fluctuations in exchange rates.

Fund fees – Fund management fees and expenses are paid on behalf of the Fund, of whether the Fund performs or underperforms. This influences the Fund's performance. The Management Company has set the limits for the fees and expenses paid by the Fund to protect the Shareholders' interests. Management fee is based on fixed rate and performance fee, which aims to align the Management Company's and Shareholders' interests by linking the management fee partially with the performance of Fund's investments.

Interest rate risk – the risk that the level, yield curves or volatility of interest rates, move in an adverse direction for the Fund.

Issuer-specific price risk – price risk is closely related to market risk, but mainly affects a specific security or investment. Price risk is the risk of suffering losses due to adverse price movements of a specific stock or another investment. The price of an issuer's securities is affected by the developments in the issuer's financial results, changes in the competitive environment, analysts' estimates and commentaries, etc.

Key personnel related risk – the Fund's performance depends on investment managers and other key personnel actions and experiences. The Management Company might experience negative impact when key employees leave. The Management Company aims to guarantee competitive and motivating working conditions to its managers and employees. Key investment team members are direct and indirect owners of the Management Company and thus incentivised directly by the performance and pay-out capability of the Management Company. Compensation package of other key employees is also related to the performance of the Management Company in compliance with the limitations set out in applicable legislation.

Legal risk – the risk that the Fund suffers losses or that penalties are imposed on the Fund, due to the possibility that the Management Company does not have sufficient knowledge of the legislation and its statutory obligations that are applied in the target countries of the Fund's investments. Additionally, amendments in legislation after the investment has been made could result in restrictions for the Fund's activities or create obligations for the Fund.

Liquidity risk – the risk that a financial instrument cannot be sold due to the low liquidity at the desired time or at a reasonable price, or that it is not possible to sell the asset at all. Liquidity risk is particularly relevant in cases when investing into small cap companies and in instruments not traded on a regulated securities market.

Market concentration risk – the risk arises from the fact that the majority of the fund's investments may be allocated to a certain country or region, which may result in an additional price fluctuation risk.

Market risk – the risk of suffering losses due to adverse price movements at a specific securities market or at a market for other assets. Adverse price movements may be caused by a country's weak macroeconomic data, poor financial results of an industry sector, unstable securities market, investor behaviour and psychology and other factors. Investors should bear in mind that smaller companies' volatility is usually higher compared to blue chips, thus in market downturn smaller companies' shares may fall more compared to the share prices of blue-chip companies.

Political risk – the risk that unfavourable trends or (political) events (e.g. changes in economic policy or legal environment, nationalisations, riots, war) take place in a country where the Fund's assets have been invested that affect the country's political or economic stability or future development, thereby causing the loss of the Fund's investments in the country or diminishing the value of such investments.

Registrar risk – the risk of suffering losses due to actions or inaction of the Registrar (e.g. due to failed trades arising from technical faults, delayed settlements, erroneous transactions, unauthorised disclosure of confidential information etc.).

Responsible investing risk – following responsible investment principles carries the risk that, under certain market conditions, the Fund may underperform funds that do not utilize a responsible investment strategy. The application of responsible investment criteria may affect the Fund's exposure to certain sectors or types of investments and may impact the Fund's relative investment performance depending on whether such sectors or investments are in or out of favour in the market. An investment's ESG performance or the Management Company's assessment of such performance may change over time, which could cause the Fund to temporarily hold securities that do not comply with the Fund's responsible investment criteria. In evaluating an investment, the Management Company is dependent upon information and data that may be incomplete, inaccurate or unavailable, which could adversely affect the analysis of the ESG factors relevant to a particular investment. Successful application of the Fund's responsible investment strategy will depend on the Management Company's skill in properly identifying and analysing material ESG issues.

Risk arising from the concentration of asset classes or markets – the risk that a particular event or circumstance shall have a pervasive effect on the Fund's return because the Fund's investments are concentrated on one or a small number of markets, a specific asset class or a small number of issuers.

Risk associated with conflict of interests – in addition to the Fund, the Management Company manages other funds and client portfolios with potentially conflicting interests during certain period of time. Management Company has established internal rules and policies to effectively avoid and/or adequately manage potential conflict of interests and shall adhere to such policies and procedures.

Risk of investing in funds – the Management Company is not always able to completely monitor the activity of investment funds where the funds have invested, since such investment funds may use investment strategies, which are not comprehensively disclosed to the Management Company, or contain risks in certain market situations, which are not envisioned by the Management Company. Furthermore, the risk associated with valuation of the assets arises when investing in other investment funds as the Management Company may not be able to monitor the price of every single component affecting the net asset value of the investment fund.

Risk of investing in small and mid-cap companies – the Fund invests mainly in small and mid-cap companies. The stocks of smaller and mid-sized companies are generally subject to greater price fluctuations compared to larger companies, limited liquidity, higher transaction costs and higher investment risk than the stocks of larger, more established companies. Such companies may have limited product lines, financial resources and access to capital, may be dependent on a limited management group, and may lack substantial capital reserves or an established performance record. Such companies' corporate governance may be of lower quality compared to larger companies. There may be generally less publicly available information about such companies than for larger, more established companies. Stocks of these companies frequently have lower trading volumes making them more volatile and potentially more difficult to value.

Risks related to derivative instruments – The Management Company may invest the Fund's assets in derivative instruments for the purpose of hedging currency risks. The market value of a derivative instrument depends on the price or value of another underlying foreign exchange rate. Using derivative instruments entails leverage, i.e. a small change in the price of the underlying asset may lead to a large change in the price of the derivative instrument. Therefore, an investment in derivative instruments leads to relatively larger profit or larger loss (higher risk) compared to a similar investment in the underlying asset. In case of certain derivative instruments, the potential loss is larger than the initial investment made. Since the value of the derivative instrument depends on the price of the underlying asset, the derivative instrument is subject to the same risks as the underlying. In addition, counterparty risk, interest rate risk and changes in the volatility of the underlying asset affect the value of the derivative. To determine the value of the derivative, complex valuation models are often used. Thus, investing in derivatives is also accompanied by valuation risk.

Risk related to securities not traded on regulated markets – The assets of the Fund may be partially invested in securities not traded on regulated securities markets. In addition to ordinary investment risks, such investments entail a higher liquidity risk and higher risk related to valuing such assets.

Risk related to valuing the assets of the Fund – the assets of the Fund may be invested in securities with low liquidity and in securities that are not traded on regulated markets. For such securities, a valid market price may not be available. Determining the fair value of such assets may be complex and depends on assessments made by the Management Company. The price of such financial instruments used in NAV calculation may be substantially different from a later market transaction price, which may lead to significant downward adjustment of the price of the financial instrument and a sizeable change in the net asset value of the Share.

Systemic risk – the risk that technical faults in the systems of securities depositaries, stock exchanges, market places, clearing houses etc. could cause losses for the Fund due to failed trades, delayed settlement, mistakes in recorded transactions etc.

Tax risk – unfavourable changes in the tax laws could take place in the countries where the Fund’s assets have been invested. E.g., a tax could be imposed on the Fund’s profit or income.

In addition to customary investment risks, investors have to take into account the possibility of changes taking place in the governance of the Fund. Such changes could have a significant impact on an investment in the Fund. For example, redemption of Shares may be suspended based on the terms and conditions set out in the Prospectus and the Applicable Law; the Fund could be reorganised, merged with another investment fund or liquidated. Additionally, the fees and expenses payable on account of the Fund or the Shareholder may be changed; the Articles of Association and/or the Prospectus may be substantially amended, etc. Some of the abovementioned events may take place without giving prior notice to the Shareholders.

SHARE, RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS ATTACHED TO SHARES

SHARE

Share represents the Shareholder’s holding in the assets of the Fund. The Share is a dematerialised book-entry security, maintained in an electronic Share Registry. No certificate in relation to the Shares is issued to the Shareholder. Information about the Share Registry and the Registrar is provided in section “Registrar” below.

The Share is divisible. The fractions of Shares created by dividing Shares are rounded up to three decimal points. The following rules are applied for rounding: numbers NNN.NNN0 until NNN.NNN4 are rounded to NNN.NNN and numbers NNN.NNN5 to NNN.NNN9 are rounded to NNN.NN(N+1). The Fund has two classes of Shares:

- Avaron Emerging Europe Smaller Companies Fund A (hereafter “A-Share”),
- Avaron Emerging Europe Smaller Companies Fund B (hereafter “B-Share”).

RIGHTS ATTACHED TO SHARES

The issue and redemption of Shares, and the creation and termination of the rights and obligation relating thereto, shall take effect with relevant entry into the Share Registry.

Shareholders shall be treated equally in equal circumstances. Shareholders shall exercise their rights attached to the Shares in good faith and in accordance with the Articles of Association, the Prospectus, and the Applicable Law. The Share shall grant to the Shareholder the following rights: (i) right to demand redemption of Shares; (ii) right to transfer the Shares to third parties; (iii) right to participate in the general meeting of Shareholders; (iv) right to receive a share of the assets remaining upon the liquidation of the Fund and of any distributions made from the Fund in proportion to the number of Shares and the class of Shares held; (v) right to access and receive information regarding the Fund; (vi) upon request, to receive a confirmation from the Registrar relating to Shares registered to his or her name in the Registry; (vii) to exercise other rights provided by the imperative provisions of the Applicable Law. The exercise of such rights shall not be with the intent or objective to damage the interests of other Shareholders, the Management Company, the Depositary, or any third party.

NET ASSET VALUE OF THE SHARE AND TRANSACTIONS WITH SHARES

NET ASSET VALUE OF THE FUND AND SHARE

The net asset value of the Fund and of the Share depends on the value of the assets of the Fund. The net asset value shall be calculated based on the provisions of internal rules of the Management Company (available on website www.avaron.com), the Articles of Association of the Fund and the Applicable Law. The value of the assets shall be determined primarily based on their market value. If the market value cannot be established, valuation shall be based on another suitable and generally accepted method for establishing the fair value as set out in the internal rules of the Management Company. The net asset value of the Share is determined by dividing the total net asset value of the Fund by the number of issued and outstanding Shares of that class (adjusted by transaction orders received by the Management Company, but not yet settled). The net asset value of a particular class of Share is calculated by subtracting the liabilities of the Fund that are allocated to such class of Shares from the aggregate market value of the securities and other assets of the Fund attributable to such class of Shares and dividing such value with the number of outstanding Shares of that particular class.

The net asset value of the Share shall be calculated every Banking Day in the reference currency of the relevant Share.

The Management Company shall publish the net asset value of the Fund and the Share at least once for each Banking Day on the following Banking Day by 16.30 Estonian time (15.30 CET) at its website www.avaron.com. The net asset value of the Share shall be rounded up to four decimal points.

In case an event or a fact occurs or becomes evident after the net asset value of the Fund has been calculated and published and if such an event or fact, based on the professional assessment of the Management Company, substantially affects the calculation of the net asset value, the Management Company has the right to perform revaluation, if not doing so would be detrimental to the interests of Shareholders.

TRANSACTIONS WITH FUND SHARES

The issue and redemption of Shares is organised by the Transfer Agent. In order to enter into transactions with Shares, an investor or a credit institution in which investor has a cash account shall have a securities account and a cash account linked to it opened with the Transfer Agent or only a registry account opened with the Transfer Agent and a cash account in another credit institution.

A qualified investor can open a segregated account in its own name, or a nominee account on terms and conditions as provided by such third party-service provider (e.g. a distributor). If the Shares are kept on a nominee account, the Share transaction orders shall be submitted by the nominee, and all transfers and payments in relation to Share transactions shall be made to the nominee account (and to the current account of the nominee, respectively).

Transactions with Shares shall be performed and settled in the reference currency of the respective Shares.

By submitting an order, the Shareholder confirms that he or she has thoroughly acquainted with, consents to and undertakes to adhere to the Articles of Association of the Fund or fund rules, in case of exchange into a common fund, and the Prospectus. The Shareholder is not permitted to revoke or make amendments to his or her subscription, redemption or exchange order after it has been submitted to the Management Company. Upon subscribing Shares, the investor shall pay the subscription amount within the prescribed time limit to the Fund's cash account. In case the Shareholder has not duly performed its obligations, the Management Company is entitled to use any legal remedy available to it pursuant to the Applicable Law, including the right of withdrawal from the transaction and claim damage caused by such non-performance to the Fund, other Shareholders and/or to the Management Company. The Management Company has the right in its sole discretion to refuse to execute a subscription or exchange order, if this is deemed necessary for protecting the interests of existing Shareholders, or for the orderly management of the Fund.

SUBSCRIPTION AND ISSUE OF SHARES

Shares can be subscribed and are issued on every Banking Day (additional information in section "Cut-off Dates"), unless the transactions are suspended pursuant to and in accordance with the Prospectus and/or the Applicable Law. The subscription price of the Share is the net asset value of the Share that has been calculated as of the day of receiving the subscription order (the Trade Date). No subscription fee is added to the net asset value of the Share. Shares shall be issued only upon due payment of the full subscription price.

The subscription of Shares is not limited by the number of Shares or an amount of investment. There are no minimum initial subscription amounts. However, the Management Company's Management Board has the right in its sole discretion not to accept new subscriptions should the Fund's net asset value exceed the optimum size of the Fund ("soft close" of the Fund), if this is deemed necessary for protecting the interests of existing Shareholders, or for the orderly management of the Fund. In order to subscribe Shares, an investor shall submit a subscription order to the Transfer Agent. The Share shall be issued upon receiving the subscription amount in the reference currency of the Share to the Fund's cash account latest by the settlement date, and the registration of the Share in the Share Registry. The settlement date shall be no later than the third Banking Day from the Trade Date (T+3), unless the Management Company and the investor agree on a different settlement cycle.

By submitting a subscription order, each person consents to the processing of his/her data (including personal data) pursuant to the Management Company's principles of processing client data (available at the website www.avaron.com). The persons authorised by the Management Company to process personal data (authorised processors) and their contact details are also available at the above website.

REDEMPTION OF SHARES

Upon redemption of Shares a payment in the amount of the aggregate redemption price of the Shares redeemed shall be made from the assets of the Fund to the Shareholder's cash account. The redemption payment shall be made in the reference currency of the Share. Payment in-kind is not available. Upon making the redemption payment, the Shares will be deleted from the Share Registry (on the settlement date), and all the rights and obligations relating to Shares shall be deemed as terminated as from making such a deletion. Shares are redeemed at month-end net asset value with a cut-off at 11.00 Estonian time (10.00 CET) on the 6th calendar day of the month. The redemption price of the Share shall be the net asset value of the Share that is calculated as of the last Banking Day of the month. No redemption fee is applied.

In order to redeem Shares, a Shareholder shall submit a redemption order to the Transfer Agent latest by 11:00 Estonian time (10.00 CET) on the 6th calendar day of the month. The settlement date shall be no later than the third Banking Day from the date of executing the redemption order (T+3), unless the Management Company and the Shareholder agree on a different settlement cycle, or when special arrangements specified below are applied. The term for making the redemption payment does not include the time for executing any transfer by the beneficiary bank.

Special arrangements

If net redemptions of Shares (total subscriptions minus total redemptions), including exchange of Shares to Management Company's other funds' shares or units, exceed 15 million euros, the Management Company's Management Board has the right but not an obligation to split the redemption and/or conversion orders and postpone net redemptions exceeding 15 million euros to the next redemption date (next month). The payment of the postponed orders shall take place proportionally. Postponing the trade date of the orders does not affect the settlement of the redemption and/or conversion orders received on the following month, unless the conditions for postponement of the payment date provided in this section are met for such orders. The Management Company shall notify the Shareholders affected by the postponement of the trade and payment date and publish a notice on its website. The Shareholder is not entitled to demand fine for delay, penalty, indemnification or use any other legal remedies and the Management Company is not liable for any potential damages that might occur due to splitting of orders into parts, postponing the Trade Date or payment date of the orders as described above.

If net redemptions of Shares (total subscriptions minus total redemptions), including exchange of Shares to Management Company's other funds' shares or units, exceed 15 million euros, the Management Company's Management Board has the right but not an obligation to postpone the payment date for all redemption orders up to 10 Banking Days (T+10). In such case all redeeming investors shall be treated equally. For clarification purposes redeeming Shareholders shall receive the net asset value as of the last Banking Day of the month but the payment date might be postponed from T+3 up to T+10.

The Management Company shall notify the Shareholders affected by the postponement of the payment date and publish a notice on its website. The Shareholder is not entitled to demand fine for delay, penalty, indemnification or use any other legal remedies and the Fund and the Management Company is not liable for any potential damages that might occur due to splitting of orders into parts, postponing the Trade Date or payment date of the orders as described above.

EXCHANGE OF SHARES

The Shareholder is entitled to exchange the Shares with the shares of another class of the Fund or units of another fund managed by the Management Company, provided that acquiring the shares or units of the other investment fund through exchange transaction is permitted and the conditions for the minimum initial subscription, if applied, are met, unless the Management Company has reduced or waived the requirements for some investors at its discretion. Exchange of Shares is performed based on the month-end NAV with cut-off at 11.00 Estonian time 10.00 CET) on the sixth calendar day each month.

CUT-OFF DATES

The subscription order cut-off date is the Banking Day when it is duly submitted and received by the Transfer Agent by 11.00 Estonian time (10.00 CET) on such Banking Day. The redemption and exchange order cut-off date is the 6th calendar day each month when it is duly submitted and received by the Transfer Agent by 11.00 Estonian time (10.00 CET) on such calendar day. Transaction orders received by the Transfer Agent after such a cut-off date are deemed to have been received by the next cut-off.

SUSPENDING TRANSACTIONS

The Management Company may suspend the issue or redemption of Shares subject to and in accordance with the Investment Funds Act, if such suspension would be in the collective interests of the Shareholders, or to ensure the due operation and management of the Fund. The Management Company has the right to suspend redemption of Shares where: (i) the Fund does not have liquid assets to redeem the Shares; (ii) the Management Company is unable to repatriate moneys for the purpose of making payments on the redemption of Shares or during which any transfer of moneys involved in the realisation or acquisition of investments or payments due on redemption of such Shares cannot in the opinion of the Management Company be effected at fair value; (iii) the calculation of the net asset value of the Fund is complicated, for example due to the breakdown or restriction in the use of the means of communication normally employed in determining the price or value of any of the investments or the current prices on any stock exchange or trading venue; (iv) any stock exchange or trading venue, which is a relevant market or venue on which a material part of the Fund's assets for the time being are quoted, is closed (otherwise than for ordinary holidays), or during which dealings are substantially restricted or suspended; (v) the redemption would otherwise be detrimental to the collective interests of the Shareholders or for the management and operation of the Fund (e.g. preparation for corporate events such as a merger or dissolution and liquidation); (vi) other grounds for suspension of subscriptions or redemptions exist as per the Applicable Law.

The Management Company shall promptly notify the Financial Supervision Authority of the suspension of subscriptions or redemptions of Shares, unless this is due to the suspension of trading on a relevant stock exchange or other relevant trading venue. The Management Company shall publish a notice regarding the suspension of subscriptions or redemptions on its website. The subscription and redemption of Shares may be suspended for the period of three months, and such period may be extended with the approval of the Financial Supervision Authority.

Upon the suspension of the subscription and redemption of Shares, the Registrar shall retain all subscription and redemption orders and payments on its account, and Shares are issued based on the net asset value first determined after the suspension is lifted and redemption of Shares is continued. All such subscription and redemption orders shall be executed at the same terms for all delayed Fund investors.

TAXATION

The Fund has only accumulating Shares. All proceeds from the Fund's investments shall be reinvested, and no distributions shall be made to the Shareholders from the Fund. Profit generated or loss incurred by the Fund accrues in changes of the net asset value, consequently the value of the Share increases or decreases. The investor has earned profit from the Fund if the redemption price of the Share exceeds the cost of acquisition. The Fund and/or investors could be liable to pay taxes in the countries where the Fund has investments, subject to the tax system of the particular country. Declaring and paying respective taxes is the obligation of each Shareholder. The tax system applicable to an investor may depend on his or her tax residency, legal form and other circumstances. Investors are advised to consult a professional tax advisor before investing into the Fund.

FEES AND EXPENSES

The rates of fees are provided in the Table 1 below. Management and Depositary Fees are calculated as a percentage of the market value of the assets of the Fund. The Management and Depositary Fees are accrued and deducted from the market value of the assets of the Fund on a daily basis and paid out monthly for the previous calendar month. The Management Fee is presented as an annual rate of the market value of the assets of the Fund. The rates of Depositary Fee as shown below include value added tax (VAT).

Table 1 Fees for the Fund and Shareholder

	A-Share	B-Share
Expenses paid by the Shareholder:
Subscription fee	None	None
Redemption fee	None	None
Fees and expenses paid by the Fund:
Management Fee	0.85%	1.15%
Performance Fee	15% of return over benchmark index	None
Depositary Fee (excluding VAT)	0.08% (no less than 9,000 Euros) per annum plus 0.028%-0.35% per annum according to fee schedule of the Depositary depending on where the Fund's assets are safekept
Other expenses	According to the price list of the service provider

The Management Company is entitled to a Performance Fee if A-Share outperforms the benchmark. The Performance Fee shall be calculated for the A-Share starting from 1st of January 2023. The Performance Fee shall be payable also in case the A-Share has outperformed the benchmark but had a negative performance. The standard performance fee crystallisation period is calendar year (January 1 to December 31). The rate of the Performance Fee is 15% of the amount by which the Share return exceeds the benchmark index return (positive relative return). The benchmark index is MSCI EFM Europe + CIS (E+C) ex Russia Net Return EUR Index¹. If Performance Fee is due at the end of the calendar year, the Performance Fee shall be crystallised. Performance Fee measurement shall begin anew after each time the Performance Fee is crystallised at the end of the calendar year.

If the A-Share underperforms the benchmark index at the end of the calendar year (negative relative return), Management Company will not receive Performance Fee and the performance fee measurement period shall be extended to include the next calendar year. The Management Company is entitled to the Performance Fee at the end of the second year if the cumulative return of A-Share exceeds the cumulative return of the benchmark index (positive cumulative relative return) during the extended performance fee measurement period.

If by the end of the second year the cumulative A-Share return is below the cumulative return of the benchmark index (negative cumulative relative return), the measurement period shall be extended again to include the next calendar year. The same cumulative outperformance/underperformance assessments for the entitlement of the Performance Fee shall be made at the end of each calendar year until the end of the fifth year. If by the end of the fifth calendar year the negative cumulative relative return has still not been covered and no Performance Fee is due, the return from the first calendar year is no longer relevant and performance fee measurement period shall be adjusted for the next year to include four preceding calendar years. If by the end of the adjusted measurement period positive cumulative relative return occurs and also A-Share outperforms the benchmark index during the latest calendar year, the Management Company is entitled to the Performance Fee which is calculated from the amount by which A-Share return exceeds the benchmark index return during the latest calendar year (not the measurement period positive cumulative relative return). In case there is positive cumulative relative return during the adjusted five year measurement period but A-Share underperforms (negative relative return) the benchmark index during the latest calendar year, no Performance Fee is due and the measurement period shall be adjusted again for the next year to include four preceding calendar years. Same outperformance/underperformance assessments shall be made at the end of this newly adjusted period.

The Management Company shall have the right to change the benchmark index and notify the Shareholders of the change of the index at least three months in advance on the website of the Management Company. If the new benchmark index becomes effective on any other day except January 1, the Management Company shall not be entitled to a Performance Fee for the period that begins on January 1 preceding the day of changing the benchmark index and ends on December 31 following the day of changing the benchmark index.

The entitlement for Performance Fee is revalued on each day when the net asset value of the Fund is calculated and fixed on December 31 each calendar year if Performance Fee is due. The Performance Fee is paid out thereafter within one-month period. Should Shares be redeemed prior to the date when Performance Fee is fixed, any accrued but unpaid Performance Fee for the redeemed Shares shall be crystallised and paid during the month following the fixing of the Performance Fee.

The Activities of the Depositary

The Depositary shall safekeep the cash, securities and other liquid assets of the Fund. The Depositary does not safekeep other assets of the Fund not referred to, unless it is agreed otherwise between the Management Company and the Depositary. The Depositary shall also carry out other duties entrusted to it by legislation. The Depositary shall act independently of the Management Company and in the best interests of the Fund and the Shareholders.

The Depositary has the right, in accordance with the policies provided for in the depositary agreement, to enter into agreements with third parties for delegating the safekeeping of the Fund's assets, performing settlements therewith and fulfilling other functions. The Depositary shall keep the assets of the Fund segregated from its own assets and shall keep separate accounting of the assets of the Fund. The Depositary shall choose the third parties safekeeping the Fund's assets or securities with due care to ensure the reliability of such third parties. The Depositary shall, before delegating its functions, assess and perform ongoing monitoring to ensure that the organisational and technical arrangement of the delegate as well as its financial condition is sufficient for performing its contractual obligations. The Depositary may offer its services to the Fund or to the Management Company which do not entail conflicts of interest between the Fund, the Management Company, Fund investors and the Depositary. In case of an existence of a conflict-of-interest situation, the Depositary is only allowed to offer services if the organisational set up and the level of technical systems of the Depositary enable the Depositary to separate the depositary functions from the services that create conflicting interests.

Conflicts of interest may occur in a situation where Swedbank AS offers different services in addition to the depositary service to the Management Company or to the Fund. The Depositary has the right, in accordance with the policies provided for in the depositary agreement and in the Applicable Law, to delegate to third parties the safekeeping of the Funds' assets. Where the law of a third country requires that certain financial instruments be held in custody by a local entity and no local entities satisfy the delegation requirements laid down, the Depositary may delegate its functions to such a local entity only to the extent required by the law of that third country, only for as long as there are no local entities that satisfy the delegation requirements, and only where the Shareholders of the Fund are duly informed, prior to their investment, of the fact that such a delegation is required due to legal constraints in the law of the third country, of the circumstances justifying the delegation and of the risks involved in such a delegation.

By delegating the safekeeping of the Fund's assets, the Depositary ensures that it has sufficient internal procedures for identifying, managing and avoiding conflicts of interests. For example, the conflicts of interest situation could arise in an event where safekeeping of assets has been delegated by the Depositary to an entity belonging to the same group within the Depositary.

Detailed information regarding the sub-custodians who have been delegated with the safekeeping of the Fund's asset can be found at the website www.avaron.com.
